Corporate Governance Policy

Amarin Corporations Public Company Limited (“The Company”) and its subsidiaries (“The Group”) recognize and believe in the importance of corporate governance, a pillar that upholds the Company’s effective and efficient operations on the bases of balance, sustainability, transparency, fairness, accountability, social responsibility, and environmental.

Board of Directors has a strong desire to promote the Group's efficiency in business operations, excellent management and has good corporate governance by focusing on creating the highest benefits shareholders, investors, stakeholders, and all relevant parties. Therefore, good corporate governance policy has been established for the board of directors, executives and employees of the company to strictly adhere to in performing their duties for achievement the goals and achieve stable and sustainable growth as follows:

Overview of Policies / Guidelines on Corporate Governance

The Group has consistently adheres to and complies with the corporate governance principles adhered to good corporate governance. The Corporate Governance Policy has formulated in accordance with the Stock Exchange of Thailand’s (SET) Corporate Governance Code for Listed Companies 2012, the securities and Exchange Commission’s (SEC) Corporate Governance Code (CG Code) for Listed Companies 2017 and the Thai Institute of Directors’ (IOD) Corporate Governance Report of Thai Listed Companies (CGR). The Corporate Governance Committee considered and presented the policies for the Board of Directors to approve before implementation. The Corporate Governance Committee, moreover, reviewed the policies every year.

1. Policies and Guidelines on Board of Directors

The Board of Directors consists of persons who have knowledge, expertise, and experience useful to AMARIN Group and the determination to work and devote their time to carry out their duty as directors. The Board of Directors is appointed by shareholders to supervise the Company’s operational guideline, appoint the Management for business operations, set up committees to handle specific issues and carry out specific missions, appoint the Company’s Auditor, and appoint the Company’s Secretary to conduct meetings and ensure compliance with laws. The Company's policies and guidelines related to the Board of Directors are listed below:

1.1 Components, Qualifications, and Appointment of Directors

The Board of Directors (Qualified according to item No. 1.5) shall work with dedication, responsibility, caution, and honesty. It shall also demonstrate leadership and ensure that the Management works effectively and efficiently to fulfill the Company's goals and create / add investment value for shareholders and other stakeholders.

1.2 Independence of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors shall contemplate, form opinions, and vote on an issue under its jurisdiction. If any director's decision making may fall under the pressure of his / her work, family or interests, final decision may be affected in the way that favors himself / herself, his / her close ones, or his / her interests. To protect the interest of shareholders, directors whose independence is compromised should not engage in decision making. AMARIN Group has set clear lines of roles between its Chairperson, Chairman of the Executive Committee and its Group Chief Executive Officer.

1.3 Board of Directors' Roles, Duties, and Power

The Board of Directors, which are like the representatives of shareholders, must have responsibility towards the latter. The Board of Directors thus shall set direction for the Company's growth and decide on its important matters with prudence and honesty. With a crucial role to play in corporate governance, the Board of Directors shall professionally tends to the interests of all parties and maintain its independence from the Management so as to supervise the Management's performance, operating results, risk management, and remuneration.

1.4 Board of Directors' Meetings and Information Delivery

The Board of Directors' meetings are parts of its key mission to supervise the Company's operations. The meetings are done based on the following guideline:

1.4.1 Board of Directors' meetings are officially scheduled in advance for the whole year, with directors being informed of this schedule. At least one meeting of the Board of Directors is held in each quarter for the Board to acknowledge operating results and review financial statements. In events of urgent matters, additional Board of Director's meetings may be held where appropriate.

- 1.4.2 Invitations are sent to each director at least seven days ahead of each of Board of Directors' meetings. Included are clear meeting agendas and necessary documents for directors to review and have adequate information to make decisions at the meeting, which normally lasts for one to three hour(s);
- 1.4.3 Every director shall have opportunities to discuss and make opinions independently and openly at each meeting. The chairperson of the Board shall compile opinions and conclusions from each Board of Directors' meeting. In an event that a director has significant interests involved in any specific meeting agenda, he/ she shall be asked to leave the meeting and abstain from casting a vote on the issue;
- 1.4.4 Minutes of each of Board of Directors' meetings shall be prepared in writing by the chairperson and secretary of the Board, and submitted to the Board of Directors for review and approval at its next meeting. These meeting minutes, along with relevant documents, are also stored both as hard copies and soft copies to provide convenience to both directors and relevant parties who look for references;
- 1.4.5 Non-executive directors shall convene meetings without the presence of executive directors or the Management for independent discussions on management problems. In addition, the Board of Directors has the policy to require the Audit Committee to have at least one meeting with the Auditor together without the presence of the Management each year as assurances that directors are able to represent shareholders independently and maintain proper checks and balances. According to the Board of Directors Charter, at least two thirds of directors with the right to vote on each agenda are required to issue a Board's resolution.

1.5 Selection of Directors

The Company selected its directors via its Nomination and Remuneration Committee based on Board Diversity policy. Under this policy, directors should be diverse in terms of gender, age, educational background, work experience, expertise, and specialized skills. The Board Skills Matrix has been drawn up and reviewed on a regular basis to ensure that the Board of Directors has a proper mix. Aside, the Board of Directors must demonstrate solid integrity, vision, and leadership, and contribute to the balancing of ideas and discussions so as to pave way for constructive concepts that are useful to AMARIN Group and increase the Board's efficiency. Also, the Board of Directors must select qualified persons for executive posts in proper, transparent and fair manner.

1.6 Remuneration for Board of Directors

The Board of Directors has assigned the Nomination and Remuneration Committee to consider and set the remuneration of directors, subcommittee, and high-level executives. To attract and retain persons qualified to serve as the Company's directors, their remuneration is comparable to the industry level. Directors who have taken on additional duties or missions deserve to be paid more in a proper amount. The remuneration for directors who serve as executive directors and in the Management should be linked to both the Company's operating results and individual performance to ensure good corporate governance in line with the SET's guideline, including internationally accepted good practice principles. The remuneration for directors is in accordance with a resolution passed at a shareholders' meeting and shown in Form 56-1 One Report.

Remuneration for Group Chief Executive Officer

The performance evaluation of the Group Chief Executive Officer is based on the SET's guideline. The Board of Directors has evaluated the performance of the Group Chief Executive Officer at the end of each year. As evaluation results are considered confidential and private, it cannot be made public. However, evaluation criteria for both short-term and long-term performance are listed below:

Short Term: Remuneration is paid in the forms of salary and bonus based on performance:

Part 1 Performance against indicators of the Company's operations

Part 2 Leadership (teambuilding, communications, and success-oriented change management)

Long Term: The Company contributes to the provident fund as a percentage of salary every month.

The process for evaluating the performance of the Group Chief Executive Officer has clearly defined key performance indicators (KPIs) since the beginning of the year. When there are actual operating results, they will be compared with KPIs, both monetary and non-monetary, in order to consider the remuneration of the Group Chief Executive Officer.

1.7 Performance Evaluations of Directors

The Board of Directors has already approved the performance evaluation forms for the Board of Directors both as a group, as a subcommittee and as an individual. Every director shall conduct a self-evaluation annually so as to review his/her performance and obstacles.

Performance evaluations of the Board of Directors, all committees, all subcommittees and each individual director are summarized for the Board of Directors to use the evaluation results for development and improvement performance more efficient

1.8 Company's Secretary

The Board of Directors has assigned the Company's Secretary to support its activities namely holding Board of Directors' meetings / shareholders' meetings, preparing and sending out invitations to meetings, preparing meeting reports, storing documents related to meetings, and following up with the implementation of the Board of Directors' resolutions. The Company's Secretary also has other duties as prescribed by Article 89/15 of the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535 and applicable regulations.

1.9 Succession Plan

The Board of Directors has drawn up a plan to properly and transparently select persons for all its high-level executive posts. Also, the Board of Directors is in charge of their appointments so as to ensure that the Company gets executives who are professional and able to maintain independence from the major shareholder or other shareholders. The nominations of the Group Chief Executive Officer and other high level executives of AMARIN Group are done in line with the process prescribed by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. Nominated are suitable candidates in terms of age, qualifications, and work experience. The nomination process places an emphasis on new-generation talents and grooming them for career advancement. These talents are subject to advanced evaluations. Developed based on individual development plans, they are given challenging missions. Rotations are also done to ensure their resourcefulness development and optimal leadership skills. AMARIN Group has prepared development plans for staff at all levels to ensure they will be ready, qualified, and take up higher posts when they become vacant.

1.10 Directors Development

The Board of Directors has accorded importance to the development of directors and executives. It therefore has a policy to support their enrolment to training or participation in educational activities on a continued basis. Provided to directors are the Board of Directors' Manual as well as AMARIN Group's corporate-governance policy and guideline. In addition, the Board of Directors has registered all its members as members of the Thai Institute of Directors (IOD) so as to keep them updated about latest information including the opening of useful training courses. The Board of Directors has assigned the Company's Secretary to inform directors, including new directors, of courses they need to attend too.

1.11 Policy on Group Chief Executive Officer's, and High-Level Executives' Work as Directors/ Executives of Other Companies
